

Parent & Educator Gifted/Talented Symposium

Saturday, February 28th
8:30 to 12:00

HELD AT THE LCS

Aquilina Howell Center
Teaching & Learning
Conference Room

3955W. PENSACOLA STREET
TALLAHASSEE

- KEYNOTE: HEATHER A. FLYNN, PH.D. HELPING GIFTED CHILDREN THRIVE: RISKS AND OPPORTUNITIES

Dr. Heather Flynn will share the genetic and environmental effects on Cognition and Social/Emotional Health and the risks (including mental health) and protective factors in Gifted Children. She will also share the effects of environment, social expectations, and social communication and key outcomes, including specific strategies for positive expectation and communication. The keynote is appropriate for adults only.

- SOUTHERN SHAKESPEARE STUDENT ACTIVITIES

During the conference, Southern Shakespeare Festival will provide A Play in a Day: Shakespeare's A Midsummer's Night's Dream, which students will produce and perform. Cost is $5 per child, cash or check. Snacks provided. No drop offs. Register @ 2015lcsgiftedsymposiumstudentactivities

SYMPOSIUM REGISTRATION @
2015lcsGiftedSymposium.eventbrite.com

FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT
ANDREA GODDARD, 850.487.7871,
GODDARDA@LEONSCHOOLS.NET

