

Professional Development Alternatives

Florida Diagnostic & Learning Resources System is happy to offer the following online, facilitated, hybrid/blended modules for teachers in Gadsden, Leon, Jefferson, Taylor, and Wakulla counties:

For full course descriptions click here

60 In-service Credit Hours

- ✦ Differentiating Reading Instruction for Students
- ✦ Foundations of Exceptional Education
- ✦ Instructional Practices
- ✦ PBS: Understanding Student Behavior
- ✦ Assessment & Evaluation

30 In-service Credit Hours

- ✦ Differentiating Mathematics Instruction
- ✦ Differentiating Science Instruction

20 In-service Credit Hours

- ✦ Introduction to Differentiated Instruction
- ✦ Technology for Student Success: An Introduction
- ✦ Technology for Student Success: Assistive Technology
- ✦ Engaging Learners through Informative Assessment

Courses will begin September 7th.

Registration is required

<http://bit.ly/2afmsDh>

These free, online professional learning opportunities, offering high-quality online content and activities, with classroom related tasks, are designed to assist educators with responding to the various instructional and behavioral needs of each individual learner.

* All courses meet the 20hr. recertification requirement of instructional strategies for students with disabilities. ****

For more information, contact:

Allyn Howard, PDA Coordinator

howarda@leonschools.net 850.561.6554

Or visit www.fdlrsmicco.org

