

CELEBRATE LITERACY WEEK at ATMSA

Monday
January 25th

Hats off to Historical Figures!

Students will be able to wear their favorite hat.

We will begin our AR-a-thon. Classes will be competing across grade levels to earn the most AR points for biographies and autobiographies. The Media Specialist will be keeping a weekly total and totals will be announced on the morning news. Students will receive an auto/biography bingo card to fill. Once filled they will earn a prize from the Media Center. (DA students will be able to collect their prizes in the front office)

Tuesday
January 26th

Bouncing Through History in our Bobby Socks!

Students will be able to wear fun socks,

Bobby socks will be encouraged.

Students will begin selecting their character for Character Day. Students will create a presentation about their character for their classmates. These presentations could be but are not limited to a visual representation, PowerPoint, a song, an interpretive dance, or written report.

Wednesday
January 27th

Wacky Wednesday

Students will have the opportunity to wear historical or wacky hair styles.

AR-a-thon continues, and students will continue to work on their character presentations.

Thursday
January 28th

Decade Day

Students will dress up in their favorite decade attire.

AR-a-thon continues, and students will continue to work on their character presentations.

Friday
January 29th

Character Day

Students will dress up as their favorite character from a biography or autobiography they have read this week.

They will also present their character to their class.
