Shadowing Instructions

Students wishing to shadow in the IB program at Rickards High School find their experience very rewarding and integral to their decision to attend our program. Shadowing occurs in the months of January and February (and March for students who are zoned for Rickards High School) on specified dates. Prior to shadowing, each student and their parent must:

1. Obtain an appointment date to shadow, in advance, by contacting the IB Academic Dean, Mrs. Victoria Williams, at williamsv3@leonschools.net or at 850-414-5597.
2. Complete the Permission to Shadow Form and obtain the required approval signature from an administrator at your current school.
3. Bring the form with the student on their shadowing date to the Rickards front office and give it to Mrs. Williams.
4. Bring a copy of the most recent report card showing the student's middle school GPA and current class schedule.
