

John Nolan Memorial Intensive Scholarship

Feeding giraffes, camping in the Smokey Mountains, Broadway in New York, sailing in the Keys... These experiences are unforgettable and can be life changing. John Nolan, 2008 SAIL graduate, greatly enjoyed, remembered, and cherished his Intensive experiences. Following his death, to honor the memory of his gusto and enthusiasm for life, John's parents and friends created and established this scholarship to enable students with financial hardships to participate in Intensives that would otherwise be unfeasible. The John Nolan Memorial Intensive Scholarship continues through the generosity of John's family and donations from other SAIL supporters.

Depending on the availability of funds, the scholarship may match your payments up to 50% of the cost of any Intensive. Any unused portion of a scholarship award will revert to the scholarship fund.
